FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Health & Safety Fair 2017! FREE Admission, Great Info, & FREE Raffles

Lake Stevens Fire and Lake Stevens Police are gearing up for the Annual Health & Safety Fair scheduled for Saturday, June 10th from 10am – 2pm at the Market Place Parking Lot located at Market Place & 91st Avenue in Lake Stevens. This has become quite the tradition for our community, dating back to 2006, and it continues to grow each year.

The goal of the Health & Safety Fair is to educate the community on practical health and safety tips for everyday life. At this time we have over 40 booths confirmed and admission is FREE to the public. FREE raffle entry cards will be available at the event and once a guest gets a majority of booths to initial the card, the guest becomes eligible to participate in the FREE raffle drawing.

Learn more about the following topics at the Health & Safety Fair: Summer Safety, Boating Safety, Sun Protection, Swimming Safety, Pet Safety During Warm Weather, Oral Hygiene, Eating Healthy, Eye Care, CPR, Identity Theft Prevention, Posture Tips, Fitness, Cancer Prevention, Recycling Tips, Disaster Preparedness, Community Resources, Smart 911, Internet Safety, and SO MUCH MORE!

Lake Stevens Fire will have their Fire Safety House open and the emergency vehicles will be available for tours, emergency calls permitting. Lake Stevens Police will bring their boat for tours and have Child ID Card information available. There will also be music and fun activities to participate in, including a bouncy house with Team Fitness.

Make plans to attend the Annual Health & Safety Fair on Saturday, June 10th from 10am – 2pm. Have some fun while you learn health and safety tips for everyday life! Feel free to contact Lake Stevens Fire at 425.334.3034 or Lake Stevens Police at 425.334.9537 if you have any questions regarding this free community event.
